Quality, not quantity.

That is one key point of emphasis for Ryan Flanagan's Owensville Dutchgirl basketball team.

That is because there's only 13 girls that will make up the junior varsity and varsity teams.

"We may not have the numbers we're used to, but I feel like we have quality players that will help lead us to a successful season," Flanagan said.

With no seniors on this year's roster, Flanagan's Dutchgirls will lean on the junior trio of Katelyn Landolt, Kate Angell and Anna Skornia for team leadership.

Playing in all 28 games last season as a sophomore, Skornia returns as the team's leading rebounder pulling down just over five boards a game.

With the graduation of Breanna Diestelkamp and Liana Miller from last year, Owensville will need players to step up in the scoring department after the aforementioned duo combined to average 31 points a game accounting for over half of the team's scoring.

Averaging four and two points a game respectively last season, Angell and Landolt will be called on to provide more scoring for the Dutchgirls.

"We'll be looking to Kate (Angell) and Katelyn (Landolt) to step up their game on offense," Flanagan said.

Garnering Class 4 All-District honors last winter as a freshman, sophomore point guard Anna Finley will be relied upon heavily to lead the Dutchgirl offense.

"Anna (Finley) has a high basketball IQ and we'll need that in order to be successful this season," Flanagan said.

Columbia or bust

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR

wjohnson@wardpub.com

For the second time in as many years, the road to state wrestling in Columbia will once again not travel through Ste. Genevieve.

Released nearly two weeks ago, the Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHSAA) left Rod Barndollar's Owensville Dutchmen wrestlers in Class 2, District 2 for the 2019-20 season.

Contested last year in Marshall, Barndollar's Dutchmen grapplers will spend Valentine's Day weekend north of Interstate 70 in Mexico.

"We know that this one of the toughest districts in the state," Barndollar said. "We'll just have to show up and wrestle throughout the season to get ourselves ready for districts."

Before OHS even steps on the mat for their first meet next Tuesday, the team was dealt some adversity.

During football season, Kolby Jahnsen suffered a season-ending knee injury robbing him of his junior season.

"It's tough to see anyone lose a season to injury," Barndollar said. "Kolby had a goal to get to state and get on the podium like his brother (Dustin) did."

In spite of Kolby's injury, Barndollar has plenty of wrestlers also looking to earn their way into the MSHSAA Wrestling Championships at Columbia's Mizzou Arena held Feb. 20-22.

Between Dutchmen and Dutchgirl wrestlers, Barndollar will have 10 seniors to lead 25 grapplers.

Seniors wrestling their final season at OHS include Joe Bauer, Boston Belk, Tighe Bombach, Hunter Hutchison, Michael Stockton, Cody Linders, Cory Rau, Seth Scheidegger, Emma Reed and Jaz Marquez.

For Reed and Marquez, they will be the first senior wrestlers in the young two-year history of the Dutchgirl wrestling program.

Joining the Dutchgirl senior duo will be sophomore Aubrey Dawson and junior returner Haven Sanders.

"This is a solid group of seniors and I hope everyone of them can meet their goals this season," Barndollar said.

Dutchmen wrestlers joining Sanders as juniors on the squad include Zach Adams, Aden Steineker and Dakota Martin.

Best wishes for a successful season!

Five seniors poised to lead Dutchmen

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Returning a vast majority of his varsity squad from last year, Todd Rehmert is very optimistic about the upcoming season of Owensville Dutchmen basketball.

“We return a lot of guys that saw varsity experience last year,” Rehmert said. I think we have plenty of athletes that will give us the chance to be competitive in nearly every game we play.”

Leading the way for Rehmert’s varsity squad will be the senior quintet of Cason Gray, Daxton Mehrhoff, Justin Garner, Trevor Abernathy and Boyde Nicks.

“I’ve had these seniors for three years now,” Rehmert said. “I’m looking forward to see them become the leaders we need to make us competitive no matter who we play against.”

Robbed of his sophomore season due to a knee injury, Macen Blankenship figures to provide a spark for a Dutchmen offense that struggled at times to put points on the board last season.

“Getting Macen (Blankenship) back will help us big time,” Rehmert said. “His athleticism will be a welcome asset after having to miss last year due to injury.”

Juniors joining Blankenship on the varsity Dutchmen basketball roster include Zaid Epstein, Tyler Heidbrink, Austin Terry and Bryor Bogle.

Derek Brandt and Decker will round out the varsity roster as sophomores.

Terra Heidle’s junior varsity Dutchmen will consists of seven sophomores and three freshmen.

Those sophomores include Reagan Wehmeyer, Austin Lowder, Landon Valley, Logan Evans, Ashton Kramme, Carter Lairmore and Bailey Wehmeyer.

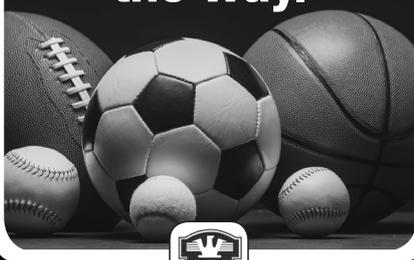

Freshmen moving up to the junior varsity ranks include Reese Rehmert, Rane Rehmert and Bryce Payne.

Martin will be looking for redemption as a junior after seeing his sophomore season end early due to concussions.

Sophomores donning singlets for Owensville include Caden Baker, Draiden Bush, Brent Helmig, Alan Kopp and Alex Pack.

Kopp's potential road to state got a little easier this year.

Falling to an eventual state champion in Boonville's Brant Whittaker during districts last February, Kopp will not have to worry about the former Pirate grappler as he transferred to Father Tolton Regional Catholic High School in Columbia.

Father Tolton is Class 1 in wrestling meaning Owensville won't see them since the Dutchmen are a Class 2 wrestling school.

In terms of teams the Dutchmen will face come district time in Mexico, most of them remained the same with the exception of two schools.

Centralia dropped down to Class 1 while Marshall was moved with Kansas City area schools to Class 2, District 4.

Taking their place in the Class 2, District 2 field were Blair Oaks' Falcons out of Class 1, District 3 and Wright City's Wildcats out of Class 1, District 1.

Teams remaining in Class 2, District 2 from last year along with Owensville include Boonville, Fulton, Kirksville, Lutheran St. Charles, Mexico, Moberly, Orchard Farm, Priory, Southern Boone, St. Charles West, St. Francis Borgia and Winfield.

Fans wanting to catch a glimpse of OHS wrestling throughout the winter will have to log some miles on the road to do so.

That is because there is only one scheduled home meet along with their annual tournament held the third Saturday in January.

Owensville's lone home regular season meet against St. James and Park Hills (Central) will also serve as senior night on Tuesday, Jan. 28.

Also unusual about Dutchmen wrestling's schedule is that three of their meets will be held on Wednesday nights.

OHS' season-opener will be on Wednesday, Dec. 4 on the road in a tri-meet against Rolla's Bulldogs and the host Washington Blue Jays. That meet will begin at 5 p.m., at Washington High School.

Following the season opener at Washington, varsity Dutchmen wrestlers will compete in tournaments the next two Saturdays at Pleasant Hill and in the Missouri Duals Tournament at Helias High School in Jefferson City.

Closing the 2019 portion of their slate, Owensville will travel to St. Clair for a Four Rivers Conference (FRC) quad meet against the host Bulldogs, Union's Wildcats and Capital City's Cavaliers.

2019-20 Middle School Wrestling

2019-20 OWENSVILLE Middle School Wrestlers (in front, from left) include Grace Abel and Emily Davis; in the middle, Preston Shanks, Kaleb Wells, Tristan Feldmann, Trevor Griffith and Carter Niederholtmeyer; and in back, Jacob Smith, Landon Kramme, Paul Million, Darryl Muschany, Nick Koepke and Trenton Million.

After former assistant coach Danny Mundwiller relocated to Warrensburg, former Dutchmen basketball player Matt Kramme will be the head coach of the Dutchmen freshman basketball team.

Freshmen making up Kramme's roster include Will Muehlhausen, Will Lauth, Charlie Whelan, Joseph Skornia, Derrick Marquez, Austin Luecke, Kaden Hinson, Wyatt Kramme and Logan Risse.

Much like their wrestling counterparts, Dutchmen basketball will spend nearly the first month of the season on the road.

Following their season-opening tournament at Borgia, Rehmert's Dutchmen will play three road games in a 10-day span against Cuba (Dec. 3), Washington (Dec. 9) and Linn (Dec. 13).

Owensville will close the 2019 portion of the schedule opening Four Rivers Conference (FRC) basketball with a home game on Friday, Dec. 20 against St. Clair's Bulldogs with a 5:30 p.m., tipoff for the junior-varsity contest.

After a two-week break encompassing Christmas and New Year's Day, Owensville will host their 31st Annual Boys Basketball Tournament the week of January 6.

Teams competing along with the host Dutchmen will include Linn, St. Clair, Salem, School of the Osage, Belle and Steelville.

After a pair of non-conference road games at Steelville and Wright City following the Owensville Tournament, Rehmert's Dutchmen will compete in their final regular-season tournament of the season at Belle.

Once tournament action at Belle concludes, a string of three non-conference home games against Fulton, Capital City and Belle will lead to the winter homecoming for the Dutchmen.

Nearly knocking off Hermann on the road last year, Owensville will get a chance to avenge their gridiron loss to the Bearcats during basketball homecoming on Friday, Feb. 7 as part of a varsity doubleheader with their Dutchgirl counterparts.

In the annual preseason FRC coaches poll, the Dutchmen were selected to finish eighth while St. James was nearly a unanimous preseason favorite to win the conference title.

Teams finishing behind St. James in the preseason poll included Hermann, Sullivan, Pacific, Union, St. Clair and New Haven.

"As it has been nearly every year, every game we play within the (Four Rivers) conference will be a tough one each night," Rehmert said.

District action come March will see the same site and the same teams.

Hosted by Union High School, the MSHSAA Class 4, District 9 Basketball Tournament will feature the host Wildcats, Owensville, Rolla, Salem, Sullivan and St. Clair.

include Leah Reed, Keira Hendrix and Kyla Hendrix.

Freshmen competing for playing time at the varsity level include Landry Watson and Abby Terry.

"There are pros and cons having to play freshmen at the varsity level," Flanagan said. "On one hand, they are playing primarily against juniors and seniors. However, seeing varsity time as underclassmen will only help them get better later in their high school basketball careers."

Opening their season last night (Tuesday) at home against Capital City's Lady Cavaliers, Flanagan's Dutchgirls will open the December portion of their season with a Four Rivers Conference (FRC) foe.

Hosting St. Clair on Monday, Dec. 2, Owensville will have one more December home game against Cuba on Thursday, Dec. 12 before closing the 2019 portion of their season in the Peoples Bank Holiday Classic at Sullivan High School the week before Christmas.

In the FRC race, Sullivan and Hermann were picked as the top two teams in the coaches preseason poll.

"As usual, the FRC will be tough from top to bottom," Flanagan said.
