A new season on a new field

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Robbed of their spring 2020 season by the beginning of the coronavirus, Tyler Ahring's Owensville Dutchmen baseball team will look to take full advantage of being able to play high school baseball this spring in 2021.

"I am very excited and so are the kids," Ahring said. This is the best team top to bottom since I have started coaching, and quite honestly the scariest lineup since my senior year back in 2010."

With nearly 40 student-athletes out for baseball, Ahring will have plenty of weapons at his disposal throughout the spring.

Leading the way for the diamond Dutchmen will be five seniors in Bryor Bogle, TC Fisher, Garret West, Ethan Reed and Tyler Heidbrink.

"I'm glad these guys get to play out their senior year on the baseball diamond," Ahring said. "I feel for our seniors last spring who did not get that opportunity due to the coronavirus pandemic."

Those players now 2020 Owensville High School graduates include Trevor Abernathy, Justin Gauer, Javohntae Gates, Austin Gregory, Joe Havelka, Cody Linders and Daxton Mehrhoff.

Juniors making up the majority of the varsity Dutchmen baseball roster in 2021 include Gavin Loague, Derek Brandt, Dominic Grigaitis, Eoin Krupp, Landon Valley, Michael Steinbeck, Logan Evans, Jon Saunsaucie, Eli Wilson and Hunter Engelbrecht.

A duo of sophomores will round out the varsity Dutchmen baseball roster in Austin Long and Will Lauth.

Logan Evans, Saunsaucie, Wilson and Engelbrecht also top the junior varsity roster for Owensville Dutchmen baseball in 2021.

Sophomore Keagan Cobble joins Long and Lauth in addition to the freshman trio of Jordan Rabbitt, Garrett Crosby and Layne Evans rounding out the JV Dutchmen baseball roster.

Seeing 12 freshmen come out for Dutchmen baseball this spring, Ahring will be assisted by Steven Kemp and Casey Fisher.

Joining Rabbitt, Crosby and Layne Evans on the freshman squad will be Isaiah Gates, Landon Ely, Cody Perkins, Logan Kleekamp, Aryon Fisher, Colton Skiles, Laine Baumbach, Ben Homan and Jim Jenkins.

Dropping Belle from the schedule, Ahring has beefed up his schedule with bigger schools.

Not only does St. Francis Borgia return to the schedule, but the Columbia High School Tournament at Hickman High School also returns.

"We have some big schools on our schedule to help us gear up for districts in May," Ahring said.

District and class assignments will be released at the end of the month.

Kalyn Kemp takes over Dutchgirl soccer

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Finishing 14-6 two years ago, Owensville Dutchgirl soccer has a new coach and new faces to the varsity line up.

After Jordan Palmer stepped away from coaching due to personal reasons, Kalyn Kemp was hired to replace Palmer as the head coach of Owensville Dutchgirl soccer.

"I'm excited that the girls are going to have a season this spring," Kemp said. "It was tough to see not only girls soccer but all of the spring sports not happen last year due to the coronavirus pandemic."

Kemp will be assisted by Barb Loyd.

Seniors looking to lead the Dutchgirls to another winning season include Katelyn Landolt, Luci Angell and Kaitlyn Nelson.

Recovered from a knee injury that kept her out of the end of basketball season, Landolt has been able to compete during her senior season in softball, basketball and now soccer.

She will be looked to as a defensive leader to help out Angell who will be the most experienced goal keeper on the Dutchgirl roster.

"Luci (Angell) comes in as our most experienced goalie," Kemp said. "We'll look to her for saves when we need them in addition to our defense helping her as well."

Juniors rounding out the upperclassmen portion of the Dutchgirl soccer roster include Leah Reed, Paige Loyd, Mia Herfeldt, Jocelyn Benson, Cami Gray, Emily Marquez, Aubrey Dawson and Kyah Tiefenbrunn.

Sophomores making up the majority of the Dutchgirl soccer roster this spring include Avery Bastunas, Maria Benson, Drew Copeland, Mallory Eberlin, Kiana Guerrero, Camri Jones, Kylie Kitchen and Landry Watson.

All eight sophomores will split time between the varsity and junior varsity squads so that each team will be able to play full matches when their opponents also have enough players to play full varsity and JV matches.

Freshmen rounding out the 2021 Dutch-girl soccer roster include Anya Binkhoelter, McKenna Edwards, Stephanie Cain, Emily Krause and Hannah Nelson.

Kemp's Dutchgirls will compete in two tournaments during the regular season.

Their first one will be at Dixon in early April before hosting their second annual tournament at Owensville High School's Dutchmen Field during the last week of April.

Following their tournament, OHS will close the regular season with home matches against St. Clair, Crocker, St. James and Laquey.

In their season opener last Friday, the Dutchgirls were originally scheduled to travel to Westphalia to face Fatima's Lady Comets.

However, due to Fatima's field being unplayable, the game was moved to Owensville and the turf at Dutchmen Field.

This helped the Dutchgirls have three of their first four matches of the season at home.

OHS track eager to begin 2021 season

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohnson@wardpub.com

Denied a chance to compete thanks to the beginning of the coronavirus outbreak last spring, Matt Candrl's Owensville Dutchmen and Dutchgirl track teams are eager to compete again in 2021.

"Not being able to compete last spring was disappointing," Candrl said. "However, everyone is ready to get out there and compete knowing that there is going to be a season."

Seniors looking to lead OHS Track and Field to a successful 2021 campaign include, TJ Whelan, Brayden Edwards, Julianna Watkins, Emily Tiefenbrunn, Kylee Terrill, Bianca Strubberg, Sydney Silvers, Hayley Russell, Kierstin McCormick, Mekayla Gibson, Carley Finn, Katie Candrl, Isabelle Bruckerhoff, Kate Angell, Cameron O'Neal and Owen Holtzer.

With three All-State medals to her credit, Candrl is Owensville's top returner on the girl's side.

"Katie Candrl has a chance to tie Chad Froelker, Tammy Wenkel and Dea Dea Sieckmann with seven state medals if she can earn four this season," Candrl said. "We'll see where that goes."

Candrl has been All-State in the 100-meter hurdles and in the pole vault throughout her Owensville High School (OHS) track career.

She will continue her track and field career next year at Missouri Southern State University (MSSU) in Joplin where her older brother Bryan is currently a redshirt sophomore competing in the pole vault for the Lions.

Gibson is another returning all-state athlete for Dutchgirl track and field.

Part of the 4x800-meter relay team that earned All-State honors two years ago, Gibson also earned All-State accolades this past fall in cross country.

"Mekayla is ready to go and we're looking forward to seeing what she can do," Coach Candrl said.

Gibson will also continue to run cross country and track in college next year at William Woods University in Fulton.

Ranked in the top eight entering his senior season, Whelan will also be looked at to anchor the Dutchmen relay teams.

Members of the Owensville High School (OHS) Class of 2020 not able to play their season due to the coronavirus pandemic were Hunter Hutchison, Blaine Reed and Logan Tiefenbrunn.

Out of the seven golfers that VanLeer has on his roster, two of them are seniors this spring in returner Tanner Brown and newcomer Connor Lang who previously played baseball.

Tyler Perkins is the lone junior for VanLeer’s OHS golf team making the majority of the team underclassmen.

Sophomores making up the majority of the OHS Golf contingency include Kohl Grannemann, Tyler Mogenson and Erik Shell.

Rounding out the OHS Golf roster as the lone freshman is Cole Angell.

Practicing throughout the spring at Owensville Golf Course (OGC), OHS will only have two meets this spring.

They will be on Tuesday, April 6 hosting St. Clair and on Tuesday, April 13 hosting Sullivan. Both meets have a 4 p.m., tee time.

This year’s FRC Tournament will be held at Birch Creek Golf Course on Monday, April 26 beginning at 9 a.m.
