Welcome Back Elementary Students

Welcome to Fatima Elementary! I hope your summer has been enjoyable. Hopefully all students will return to school refreshed and ready to learn. I'm sure they will come back to school with lots of stories and adventures to share. The beginning of a new school year is always an exciting time and I can't wait to begin my third year here at FES!

The entire staff has been working hard throughout the summer getting ready for the new school year. As we all know, we are still in some uncertain times so there will still no doubt be some changes here and there. However, we will continue to do our best to put the students' learning on the forefront of our decisions and we will continue to get through this together.

When you return in August, you will recognize most of the staff. However, we do have two new teachers joining our Fatima family and they will both be teaching 3rd grade. Ashlee Schnieders is coming to us from Jefferson City where she has been teaching the past two years and Emily Schulte will begin her teaching career as a Fatima Comet! I am extremely excited to have both ladies in our building! We have one teacher move and that is Christy Varnadore. She will be moving from Kindergarten to 1st grade.

Our open house will be held Monday August 23rd from 5-7:00 p.m. All teachers will be in their classrooms throughout this time to meet with students and parents. You are free to come at any time during these two hours to drop off school supplies, meet your child's teacher, take care of any business in the elementary office, etc. As you arrive, just come on in the front doors and head straight to your child's classroom. They will be prepared to answer any questions you may have and provide you with information you will need for the 2021-2022 school year.

The first day of school will be Wednesday August 25th. Please put these dates on your calendar. You will be getting a letter from your child's teacher along with a supply list soon. If you have any questions please contact me via email or phone call. The elementary office will open again August 2nd.

Sincerely,
Melissa Wright
Fatima Elementary Principal

St. Joseph School Happenings 2021-22

BY MISS PATRICA KIRK
ST JOSEPH CATHOLIC SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

BLAND — St. Joseph Catholic School will begin Aug. 19 with a new third grade teacher and the return of a former teacher, Mrs. Nancy Hequembourg. Mrs. Hequembourg taught at St. Joseph for nine years and thought she was going to retire only to find herself back in full swing as the English teacher of the middle school students at St. Joseph beginning this school year.

Nancy received her BS in Education from the University of Missouri. She taught in the Jefferson City public schools prior to St. Joseph. She and her husband, John, are proud parents of two sons: Kelly and Scott. She and John are the grandparents of four grandchildren and six grand-dogs. We welcome Mrs. Hequembourg back to St. Joseph School.

Mr. Jeremy Horvath will be our new third grade teacher for the coming school year 2021-2022. He grew up in Linn and attended St. George School and Linn High School. Jeremy has a Master's in Elementary Education from Truman State University. He taught at St. George School for four years and has been teaching at Russellville Public school for the past two years. Mr. Horvath and his wife, Michelle are the proud parents of a baby girl, Aria, born in May. We are so happy that he will be a part of our faculty at St. Joseph Catholic School.

How Parents Can Help Children Build Social Skills

FAMILY FEATURES

While adults may joke about needing to relearn how to be around others in a post-pandemic world, children can also benefit from a refresh of certain soft skills - especially young children who may not remember pre-pandemic life.

Building on these skills can also help children prepare for a successful return to school. In fact, data from Mintel shows parents' top learning priorities for their children prior to entering grade school are how to play well with others (67%) and good manners (66%).

"Summertime is a great time for families to help their children focus on social skills that may not have gotten much attention this past year, particularly if families were social distancing or in quarantine," said Taunya Banta, inclusion services manager for KinderCare Learning Centers. "Parents can set their children up for success when school starts again in the fall by helping them work on these soft skills in relaxed settings like family gatherings and on the neighborhood playground."

Consider these ways parents can help their children build social skills.

Name emotions: Naming emotions is an important part of learning how to regulate them. If your children don't understand what emotions they're experiencing, they may be confused or upset by how they feel and that could amplify the feelings and make it more difficult to regulate the emotions.

Talk with your children about your own feelings, or the feelings of characters in books, to help them learn to identify emotions and appropriate ways to address those feelings. For example, "I'm sad, but I know a hug will help me feel better," or "I'm mad and that's OK. It's not OK to hit, but I can punch a pillow or stomp my feet to get the feelings out of my body." As a family, try practicing some simple emotion regulation strategies like deep breathing. To help younger children breathe deep, hold up two fingers and ask them to smell the flower as they inhale (one finger) and blow out the candle as they exhale (the other).

Play with other children: Play gives children an opportunity to freely express their emotions and thoughts, work out feelings and explore relationships in a safe, lighthearted way. If you feel comfortable and can follow health and safety guidelines, visit a playground or set up play dates with other children of similar ages then take a step back to let the children play together. If your children aren't ready to play with others, allow them to stay close to you until they feel ready to join the other children.

Once the children are playing together, observe their interactions and talk with your children (in the moment or later) about how they felt. If they had fun, ask what they enjoyed. If disagreements or awkward moments came up, help your children problem-solve ways they could address those situations next time.

"Most importantly, remember children of all ages have an incredible capacity for resiliency," Banta said. "Just knowing they have a steady base to return to, a safe place where they're loved and appreciated for who they are, can give children the courage they need to face the challenge of a new or uncertain social situation with self-confidence and courage."

Tips from experienced teachers for new and aspiring educators

FAMILY FEATURES

Each school year offers exciting opportunities for little learners to discover and explore new topics, make friends and master new skills. While much of the focus is on families during the back-to-school season, it's also an important time for educators, especially those who are working with young children or are just starting their careers.

These tips from award-winning and long-term educators at KinderCare can help new and aspiring teachers prepare for a successful start to the school year and their careers.

COMMUNICATION IS KEY

Making time to connect with families gives teachers opportunities to build bonds, which is essential for success. Communicating and understanding their unique needs shows you have their children's best interests at heart. By regularly sharing stories and observations about each child's progress, teachers can also provide families with a sense of reassurance their children are being recognized and cared for as the unique people they are.

NEVER GIVE UP ON A CHILD

Each child faces unique hurdles as he or she climbs the educational ladder, with some facing more challenges than others. While at times it can be frustrating to tailor lesson plans to meet each child's individual needs, Joan Coberg, a teacher of 40 years, recommends one important trait: patience.

"The best advice I would give is to never give up on a child," Coberg said. "Have lots of patience. Always lead with love and kindness; be respectful. When I first started my career at KinderCare 40 years ago, I was learning, too. As teachers, we also learn from the children."

SET BOUNDARIES FOR SUCCESS

Similar to open lines of communication with families, getting to know your students individually can help build relationships necessary for a successful school year. Jami Vandegrift, a prekindergarten teacher and 2018 KinderCare Teacher of the Year, said this helps build mutual respect between teacher and student.

"As you build relationships, you will start to establish boundaries and routines," Vandegrift said. "Once you feel comfortable with the kids and the room, you can start bringing in the curriculum. Starting as a new teacher, I always thought I had to do it all at once. I've learned over time to start small and build each week on something new."

BE WILLING TO CHANGE

Consistency and structure within the classroom setting are important for establishing routines, but it's also helpful to have an open mind and to stop an activity when children lose interest. Be observant, flexible and willing to rethink schedules, classroom arrangements, transitions and more. Stopping to observe and ensure students are engaged can help promote success as many children learn best when fueled by personal interests.

Let Children Choose Their Paths and Recognize Accomplishments

School days often include activity time when students can explore interests like art, music, physical activity and more. When it's time for activities, try letting children choose what they'd like to do first. This can help foster independence while easing transitions, according to Hattie Mae Covington, a toddler teacher of 45 years. It also opens the door for teachers to cheer on their students for succeeding in activities of their choosing.

"Kids, especially young children, love to be recognized and rewarded for doing good work," Covington said. "High fives and smiley face stickers go a long way toward encouraging them and helping them be successful. Celebrating students for their accomplishments can be a meaningful way to create bonds that support their ongoing interest in learning."

St. Mary's School 2021-22 School Year

St. Mary School in Frankenstein, Missouri, will begin the 2021-2022 school year on Wednesday, August 18, 2021. We currently have 25 students enrolled. In addition to our three full-time teachers, we have one part-time classroom teacher, a principal who teaches part time, three part-time teachers for religion, art and music, and many volunteers.

We welcome Mrs. Sarah Fessler to St. Mary School as our 3rd and 4th grade classroom teacher. Mrs. Bobbi Rankins will return as a part-time teacher in the first and second grade classroom along with Mrs. Janice Markway, Principal. Mrs. Rankins will also be teaching technology and P.E. to all grades. Mrs. Theresa Uthe is returning for her 22nd year as the fifth and sixth grade homeroom teacher, and she will also be teaching language arts to the seventh and eighth grade students. Mrs. Kathleen Kloeppel will again be the seventh and eighth grade homeroom teacher, as well as teaching math and science to the fifth and sixth grade students. Sr. Claret Feldhake will again be our art teacher, and Mrs. Marlene Kuster is returning as our music teacher. Mary Beth Peters is returning as the cafeteria manager, and Mrs. Rae Jene Mantle will also be cooking with Mary Beth. Mrs. Janice Markway is the principal, and Fr. Colin Franklin is the pastor and spiritual director.

Our school is small, but our academics are huge. Having small classes allows for individualized instruction which enables our students to reach their potential and excel. As our previous pastor, Fr. Dan Merz said, St. Mary School offers "professional homeschooling". Some of the extras we offer include robotics, keyboarding for all grades, pre-algebra for 7th grade students, algebra for 8th grade students, and students are introduced to playing a variety of instruments in music class. Each of our students have their own Chromebook for classroom activities and assignments, and each classroom has brand new Smartboards. Students enjoy using the 3D printer for classroom projects as well. All of our students get to participate in the Fast ForWord program, and IXL which are personalized learning programs for students. We have an archery club for students in grades 3-8. If you would like information or would like to enroll your child, please contact Mrs. Markway at 573-897-2567 or 573-690-2114. You can also email her at stmarymo@gmail.com.

We are so excited to get back into the classroom with our students!

MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

Sacred Heart School Rich Fountain 2021-22

The faculty and staff of Sacred Heart School are looking forward to the upcoming 2021-2022 school year. Many new and exciting things have occurred over the summer.

The school welcomes three new faculty and staff members to Sacred Heart. Ms. Marlena Woelk will teach 3rd and 4th grade next year. She comes to Sacred Heart from Rolla where she graduated from Missouri University of Science and Technology. Ms. Woelk has had a wide range of experiences while serving in many roles at St. Patrick's School in Rolla. The school also welcomes Mrs. Lauren Krieg as the new physical education teacher and Mrs. Kathy Markway as the new preschool/kindergarten teacher's aide.

Returning to the preschool/kindergarten program this year will be teacher Mrs. Krystle Smith. Mrs. Jackie Prenger will return as the 1st and 2nd grade teacher with Ms. Beth Linnenbrink teaching the sixth, seventh and eighth grade students language arts, religion, science and social studies while Ms. Linda Neuner will teach the junior high math classes. Mrs. Annette Poettgen will be teaching music again this year, and Sister Mary Ann will return to teach art. Mrs. Mary Lea Reinkemeyer and Mrs. Dana Bexten will return to serve in the role as the school's secretary. Lunches will be prepared by Mrs. Donna Baysinger, and the building needs will be taken care of by Mrs. Alma Baldwin. Mrs. Debbie Reinkemeyer will again serve as the school principal and Father Bill Debo will return as the pastor to the parish and school.

The school has had many improvements made to it during the summer months. Each classroom has had a Viewsonic Interactive Panel installed for classroom instruction as well as a portable air purification system. The school will also be implementing a new assessment program to be given to the students in grades K-8 three times a year to monitor progress throughout the year. The students will also work with a new online supplemental math program. All of the teachers were provided with new laptops while all students in grades 1-8 will use Chromebooks, and students in PS-K will use Ipad's.

Back to School folders will be placed in the back of Sacred Heart Church the weekend of Aug. 7th/8th. An Open House has been scheduled for Wednesday Aug. 11th from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. School shirt orders will also be available for pick-up.

The opening day of school will be Wednesday Aug. 18th.

St. George Catholic School 2021-22

St. George is gearing up for the 2021-22 school year! We welcome some new faces to our ranks. Tina Eisterhold will be moving to the full-time 5th-grade teacher. Robin McClay will be rejoining us as a part-time fourth-grade teacher. Mrs. McClay was on our faculty in 2014. Julie Mitchem will be joining our ranks as an art teacher. Dana Peters will also be joining the staff as a teacher's aide.

Mary Jo Johnson will be returning as the kindergarten teacher; Sr. Linda Brandt will be in first grade. Elizabeth Reinkenmeyer will be in second grade, Becky Wingrath will be in third grade, Beth Parrish will be in 6th-grade homeroom. She will be the junior high language arts teacher again this year. Bob Maranowski will be returning as a 7th-grade teacher; his duties will be teaching religion and social studies to our junior high students. Our junior high math and science classes will be under the direction of Jennifer Gast. She will also be in the 8th-grade home room. Our littlest Warriors, our preschool-aged children will be taught by Jessica Jurd as the PK teacher, with the help of Scarlett Stump and Tammy Tyree. Heather Loethen will be returning this year as the physical education teacher. Lisa Grellner will continue as the principal and Fr. Colin Franklin will be our spiritual leader. At the diocesan level, St. George School will fall under the leadership of superintendent Dr. Erin Vader. Each year brings positive changes and growth. We have a very skilled and devoted staff. Our hardworking and conscientious custodians have spent the summer thoroughly cleaning the school, and our wonderful cooks have been preparing menus.

The band will be offered again under the direction of Tom Higgins. Students in grades 5-8 will have the opportunity to learn to play a musical instrument.

The first day of class is August 12th. Our school day begins at 8 a.m. and ends at 3:10 p.m. Emphasis will be in weekly class meetings and will tie in with Catholic virtues of respect, mercy, justice, courage and grace. The focus will be on the Catholic virtue of stewardship. Stewardship in its simplest terms is the act of putting God's priorities before our own. Good stewards give the first portion of their gifts of time, talent and treasure to the Lord's work in gratitude for his many blessings. Stewardship requires us to receive God's gifts gratefully, nurture those gifts responsibly, share God's gifts justly and charitably, and return those gifts abundantly.

Sports activities will be available throughout the year. Students in grades 4-8 will be able to participate in archery. The CMPal program will be sponsoring this league. Fall sports include volleyball and cross country. Basketball will be available for girls and boys in grades 5-8 throughout the winter. In the spring, we will have track for students in grades 5-8.

The annual Home and School Raffle will begin in August. This is a significant fundraiser for the school, and the money raised goes directly back into the school to help with facilities and other student needs. Last year the money went to help purchase more interactive TVs, additional cameras, subscriptions to educational material, and other items used to help with the instruction of our students.

We have many wonderful volunteers who help keep the school running smoothly. Several committee members need to be recognized, and they are as follows: Home and School officers are Amy Ames, KC Dahl, Jill Rikard and Rachel Sullentrop. This year the School Advisory Board members are Courtney Brandt, Angela Heckman, Bradley Deeken, Dana Augustine, Kim Sokolowski, Amber Leivian, Rheannon Jahnsen, and John Klebba.

Information concerning upcoming events and other important news can be found on the school webpage at saint-george-parish.org. We are looking forward to the 2021-22 school year!

If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Grellner at lgrellner@saint-george-parish.org or at 573 897 3645.
